Subject: Request for Information Pursuant to Section 104(e) of CERCLA regarding Beck's
Lake Superfund Site located in South Bend, St. Joseph County, Indiana
CERCLIS ID#: IND980904379

Dear Mr. Yaczik:

This letter seeks Mapleville Main Inc.'s (Mapleville) cooperation in providing information and documents relating to the Beck's Lake Superfund National Priorities List Site (Site) in South Bend, St. Joseph County, Indiana. This Site is contaminated with hazardous substances that may present a threat to human health or the environment. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is investigating the release, or threat of release, of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants at the Site. Historical aerial photographs indicate that dumping occurred for over 40 years at the Site. Currently, EPA is identifying activities, materials, and parties that contributed to contamination at the Site.

This information request inquires into Boliden Metech Inc.'s (Boliden) generation, storage, treatment, transportation, and disposal of hazardous substances that have been, or threaten to be, released from the Site. Mapleville, as successor to Metech International, Inc., is also a corporate successor of Boliden. According to information from the Indiana Department of Environmental Management (IDEM), Boliden operated a heavy metals recovery facility from 1987 to 1998 at 445 North Sheridan Avenue, South Bend, Indiana, which is located in the vicinity of the Site.

Ultimately, EPA, or by agreement, responsible parties, will study the effects of these substances on the environment and public health and implement required response actions, as appropriate. EPA believes that Mapleville possesses information that may assist the Agency in its investigation of the Site. Enclosure 1 provides background and historical information concerning the Site, and Enclosure 2 provides a map of the Site including, but not limited to, what is now known as LaSalle Park.

We make this request under Section 104(e)(2) Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA), 42 U.S.C. § 9601, et seq., as amended by the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986 (SARA), Pub. L. 99-499 100 Stat. 1613 (1986), which gives EPA the authority to assess the threats to human health and the environment posed by contaminated sites and to clean up those sites. Under CERCLA, EPA has information-gathering authority that allows the Agency to require persons and corporations to furnish information and documents. Enclosure 3 is a summary of the Agency's legal authority under CERCLA.

We encourage Mapleville to give this matter your immediate attention. Instructions to guide Mapleville in the preparation of the response are in Enclosure 4. Definitions of the terms used in this Information Request are provided in Enclosure 5. The Information Request itself is found at Enclosure 6. Mapleville is required under law to provide a complete and truthful response to this Information Request and its questions, as well as to provide all requested documents. We request that Mapleville respond to this Information Request and provide requested documentation within thirty (30) business days of your receipt of this letter.

Mapleville may consider the information that EPA is requesting confidential. Under CERCLA, Mapleville may not withhold information on that basis, but Mapleville may ask EPA to treat the information as confidential. To request that the Agency treat Mapleville's information as confidential, you must follow the procedures outlined in Enclosure 7, including the requirement that Mapleville support its claim for confidentiality.

Compliance with this Information Request is mandatory. CERCLA provides that failure to answer the questions fully and truthfully and within the prescribed time frame can result in an enforcement action and penalties. Other statutes provide that the submission of false, fictitious statements, or misrepresentations can result in sanctions.

EPA has the authority to use the information that it requests in an administrative, civil, or criminal action.

This Information Request is not subject to the approval requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. § 3501 et seq.

Mapleville's response to the information request should be sent back to EPA within thirty (30) business days of your receipt of this letter. The response should be sent to:

SITE BACKGROUND

The Beck's Lake Site is located in the vicinity of Washington Street and Falcon Street on the northwest side of South Bend, St. Joseph County, Indiana. Beck's Lake, an 8-acre lake, is part of LaSalle Park, a 40-acre park owned by the City of South Bend. The park is situated north of Washington Street, south of Linden Avenue, east of Falcon Street, and west of Kaley Street in Portage Township of South Bend. The property now known as Beck's Lake/LaSalle Park in South Bend, Indiana was once a dumping area. Historical aerial photos indicate that dumping occurred for over 40 years at the Site. In the 1950s, the City of South Bend began to develop this area into the park and residential housing it is today.

Beginning in 1985, EPA and Indiana Department of Environmental Management (IDEM) conducted a series of site inspections at the Beck's Lake Site including a Preliminary Assessment, Site Inspection and an expanded Site Inspection, that, in 1996, resulted in a No Further Remedial Action Planned designation. In 2003, the Site investigation was reopened as a result of the findings of a Brownfields Environmental Assessment. The findings of IDEM's reassessment revealed that arsenic levels in surface soils at the nearby neighborhood, especially south and west of the Site were elevated compared to the surrounding area. In 2009, an expanded Site Inspection Report 2 collected additional data to better characterize the soil exposure pathway for the Hazardous Ranking System, and to identify potential sources of the arsenic contamination in the LaSalle Park area. Elevated levels of arsenic among other heavy metals have been found in the soils present at the Site. In December 2013, the Beck's Lake Site was listed on the National Priorities List.

DESCRIPTION OF LEGAL AUTHORITY

The federal Superfund law, the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. § 9601, et seq., as amended by the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986 (SARA), Pub. L. 99-499 100 Stat. 1613 (1986) (commonly referred to as CERCLA or Superfund) gives EPA the authority to, among other things: 1) assess contaminated sites, 2) determine the threats to human health and the environment posed by each site; and 3) clean up those sites.

To enable U.S. Environmental Protection Agency to conduct comprehensive investigations of sites, Section 104(e) (2) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9604(e)(2), provides EPA with broad information gathering authority which allows EPA to require persons to furnish information or documents relating to:

- A. The identification, nature, and quantity of materials which have been or are generated, treated, stored, or disposed of at a vessel or facility, or transported to a vessel or facility;
- B. The nature or extent of a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance or pollutant or contaminant at/or from a vessel or facility; and
- C. The ability to pay the costs of the clean-up.

Compliance with this Information Request is mandatory. Failure to respond fully and truthfully to each question within this Information Request and within the prescribed time frame can result in an enforcement action by EPA pursuant to Section 104(e)(5) of CERCLA. This Section also authorizes an enforcement action with penalties if the recipient of the Request does not respond and does not justify the failure to respond. Other statutory provisions (18 U.S.C. § 1001) authorize separate penalties if the responses contain false, fictitious or fraudulent statements. The EPA has the authority to use the information requested in this Information Request in an administrative, civil or criminal action.

Enclosure 4

Enclosure 7

CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION

You may consider some of the information confidential that the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA or Agency) is requesting. You cannot withhold information or records upon that basis. The Regulations at 40 C.F.R. Part 2, Section 200 et seq. require that the EPA affords you the opportunity to substantiate your claim of confidentiality before the Agency makes a final determination on the confidentiality of the information.

You may assert a business confidentiality claim covering part or all of the information requested, in the manner described by 40 C.F.R. § 2.203(b). Information covered by such a claim will be disclosed by the EPA only to the extent and only by means of the procedures set forth in 40 C.F.R. Part 2, Subpart B. (See 41 Federal Register 36902 et seq. (September 1, 1976); 43 Federal Register 4000 et seq. (December 18, 1985)). If no such claim accompanies the information when the EPA receives it, the information may be made available to the public by the Agency without further notice to you. Please read carefully these cited regulations, together with the standards set forth in Section 104(e)(7) of Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. § 9601, et seq.; because as stated in Section 104(e)(7) (ii), certain categories of information are not properly the subject of a claim of confidential business information.

If you wish the EPA to treat the information or record as "confidential," you must advise the EPA of that fact by following the procedures described below, including the requirement for supporting your claim of confidentiality. To assert a claim of confidentiality, you must specify which portions of the information or documents you consider confidential. Please identify the information or document that you consider confidential by page, paragraph, and sentence. You must make a separate assertion of confidentiality for each response and each document that you consider confidential. Submit the portion of the response that you consider confidential in a separate, sealed envelope. Mark the envelope "confidential," and identify the number of the question to which it is the response.

For each assertion of confidentiality, identify:

1. The period of time for which you request that the Agency consider the information confidential, e.g., until a specific date or until the occurrence of a specific event;
2. The measures that you have taken to guard against disclosure of the information to others;
3. The extent to which the information has already been disclosed to others and the precautions that you have taken to ensure that no further disclosure occurs;
4. Whether the EPA or other federal agency has made pertinent determination on the confidentiality of the information or document. If an agency has made such a determination, enclose a copy of that determination;

5. Whether disclosure of the information or document would be likely to result in substantial harmful effects to your competitive position. If you believe such harm would result from any disclosure, explain the nature of the harmful effects, why the harm should be viewed as substantial, and the causal relationship between disclosure and the harmful effect. Include a description of how a competitor would use the information; and
6. Whether you assert that the information is voluntarily submitted as defined by 40 C.F.R. § 2.201(i). If you make this assertion, explain how the disclosure would tend to lessen the ability of the EPA to obtain similar information in the future; and
7. Any other information that you deem relevant to a determination of confidentiality.

Please note that pursuant to 40 C.F.R. § 2.208(e), the burden of substantiating confidentiality rests with you. The EPA will give little or no weight to conclusory allegations. If you believe that facts and documents necessary to substantiate confidentiality are themselves confidential, please identify them as such so that the EPA may maintain their confidentiality pursuant to 40 C.F.R. § 2.205(c). If you do not identify this information and documents as "confidential," your comments will be available to the public without further notice to you.
